

Domestic Violence

Surveys historical issues that have affected family violence. Examines current trends in the context of the criminal justice system. Lecture 3 hours per week. 3 credits

Student's interested in the field of Criminal Justice to include but not limited to law enforcement, Victim / Witness Advocates and corrections. Students interested in the field of Law to include paralegal studies as well as those students interested in careers in the field of counseling and therapy.