

J. Sar7P630 Description:

Supervises in on-the-job training for pay in approved business, industrial and se coordinated by the college's cooperative education office. Is applicable to all oc technical curricula at the discretion of the college. 3 credits

General Course Purpose:

To provide students with part-time work experience in a design environment co educational objectives to provide increased skills in Computer-Aided Drafting tec exposing them to the advanced features of drafting software. To enhance understanding of the social skills required in a collaborative design environment student with an opportunity to be compensated while performing tasks that support design production.

Course Prerequisites and Co-requisites:

Prerequisites: ARC 221 and DRF 232

Student Learning Outcomes:

Upon completing the