

J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College
Course Content Summary

Course Prefix and Number: HIM 142 Credits: 3

Course Title: Fundamentals of Health Information Systems II

Course Description:

Continues focus of health data collection, storage, retrieval and reporting systems, with emphasis on the role of the computer in accomplishing these functions. of II. Prerequisite: Passing score on the computer. (e)a10.5 rJ 0 J7.022 0 TeLec an understanding of the data elements that skills in analyzing data for completeness and and patient record (CPE) and their role in s methods for filing, storage, retention of e filing and storage of health records competency exam 152, or permission of the ures for quantitative and

1. HIPAA
- b. Health care data elements and documentation standards
 1. Primary and secondary
- c. Quantitative and qualitative data analysis
- d. Computer-based patient record (CPR)
- e. Technology
- f. Health data record
 1. Filing
 2. Retrieval
 3. Retention
 4. Archival storage
 5. Destruction

Effective Date/Updated February 15, 2019